

United States Lunar New Year stamps 1992-2016

Year	Scott No.	Description	Subject matter and artist
1992	2720	29¢ Year of the Rooster	Cut-paper rooster by Lee
1994	2817	29¢ Year of the Dog	Cut-paper dog by Lee
1994	2876	29¢ Year of the Boar	Cut-paper boar by Lee
1996	3060	32¢ Year of the Rat	Cut-paper rat by Lee
1997	3120	32¢ Year of the Ox	Cut-paper ox by Lee
1998	3179	32¢ Year of the Tiger	Cut-paper tiger by Lee
1999	3272	33¢ Year of the Rabbit	Cut-paper rabbit by Lee
2000	3370	33¢ Year of the Dragon	Cut-paper dragon by Lee
2001	3500	34¢ Year of the Snake	Cut-paper snake by Lee
2002	3559	34¢ Year of the Horse	Cut-paper horse by Lee
2003	3747	37¢ Year of the Ram	Cut-paper ram by Lee
2004	3832	37¢ Year of the Monkey	Cut-paper monkey by Lee
2005	3895a-l	37¢ 12 designs	12 cut-paper animals by Lee
2006	3997a-l	39¢ 12 designs	12 cut-paper animals by Lee
2008	4221	41¢ Year of the Rat	Red paper lanterns by Mak
2009	4375	42¢ Year of the Ox	Lion dance mask by Mak
2010	4435	44¢ Year of the Tiger	Narcissus bouquet by Mak
2011	4492	Forever Year of the Rabbit	Two kumquat fruits by Mak
2012	4623	Forever Year of the Dragon	Dragon mask by Mak
2013	4726	Forever Year of the Snake	Firecrackers by Mak
2014	4846	Forever Year of the Horse	Drums, drumsticks by Mak
2015	4957	Forever Year of the Ram	Tray of togetherness by Mak
2016	to come	Forever Year of the Monkey	Peonies by Mak

The United States Postal Service started issuing stamps commemorating the Lunar New Year beginning in 1992. The Lunar New Year stamp issues of 2005-06 were created in double-sided panes of 24. Lunar New Year stamp artists are Clarence Lee and Kam Mak.